Choose log type

The first time you open Job Log, you will be greeted by the message “Velkommen til din joblog” (Welcome to your Job Log). It will only appear until you have created your first log. Clicking on the green “START” button takes you to the “Min joblog” (My Job Log) page.

When adding a new log, you have to choose between “LOG OM JOBSØGNING” (Job application log) and “LOG OM ANDEN AKTIVITET” (Other activities log).

“LOG OM JOBSØGNING” is used to record jobs you have applied for.

“LOG OM ANDEN AKTIVITET” is used to record interviews, courses, meetings, etc.

Making entries in Job Log

To record a job you have applied for, select “LOG OM JOBSØGNING”.

You have to fill in:

- Hvilket job?* (The job)
- Hvilken arbejdsplads?* (The employer)
- Hvor langt er du med at søge dette job?* (How far have you got with this job application?)
- Huskeliste (To-do list)
- Mine noter (My notes)
- Ansøgning og CV (Application and CV)

Please note that fields marked with * are required.

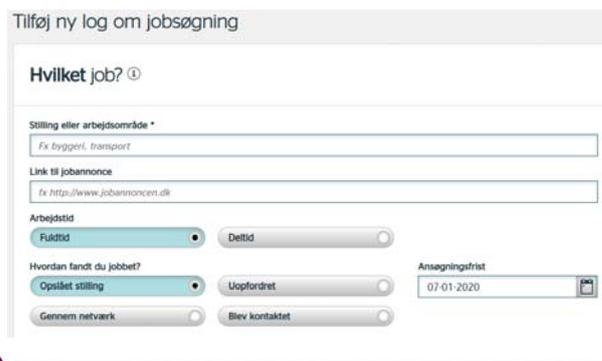

Hvilket job? (The job)

Enter the position at the top.

If you found the job advertised on the internet, you can enter the website address in the “Link til jobannonce” (Link to job advertisement) field. That means you will always be able to find the advertisement again – even once it has been taken down.

Under “Arbejdstid” (Working hours) you select whether the job is full time or part time.

At the bottom you enter how you found the job and the application deadline, if any.
